WEEKLY REVIEW OF SOUTHERN INDUSTRY

Large Capitalization Is Striking
Feature of New Industries
for Past Week.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 31.—Large capitalization is the striking feature of new industries established in the southern states during the week ending yesterday, shown in the accompanying list authorized by The Tradesman. For instance, in studying the list there are seen a pipe line company in Missouri with three million dollars capital; a manufacturing and developing company in New Orleans capitalized at one million dollars; a textile company in North Carolina with a million dollars capital; water works in Pensacola, Fla., with capital of $750,000; a development company in Texas with $500,000; pipe works and foundry in Virginia with $500,000; a coal mining company in West Virginia with $500,000; an oil refinery in Georgia capitalized at $300,000, and so on down the list, with a large number of new industries representing over $100,000 in their organization. The week's report speaks volumes for the progress of the south, especially as it is a mid-summer exhibit of the never-fading spirit of this section. The Tradesman's list for the week, which includes the more important new industries established, is as follows:

Ausley & Co's Daily Cotton Letter.
New York, Aug. 31.—Liverpool cables were much better than expected this morning, being on an average of 2 to 3 points higher than last night's close, but contrary to expectations, New York opened only slightly better than yesterday's previous figures, and was inclined to be weak from the start. During forenoon prices held around the opening figures, with scarcely any underlying strength, and directly after the noon hour, a selling pressure brought values down rapidly to within 20 to 30 points net loss from yesterday's close. It was stated unauthoritatively that Theo H. Price had issued a bearish estimate on the crop and this may account for the aggressive selling which ended the market at practically the lowest of the day. We, however, expect this decline to be only temporary, and would advise purchases around present figures, as conditions plainly indicate inevitably, much higher prices.
